TRAGER, District Judge

On March 29, 2005, this court granted plaintiff's motion for class certification and judgment on the pleadings. Vega v. Credit Bureau Enterprises, No. 02-cv-1550, 2005 WL 711657 (E.D.N.Y., March 29, 2005). Defendant has moved to stay the issuance of class notice and decertify the class due to de minimis recovery, or in the alternative to allow for publication notice to the class members. Defendant's papers cite no changed circumstance or development in the case, but rather rely on its financial condition, which is nearly identical as at the time of the earlier decision. Defendants motion is, therefore, denied.
